HIGHLY ESTEEMED MEDICINES.

FOSTER'S EGYPTIAN BALM OF LIFE.

OR NATURE'S GRAND AND GENIAL AUXILIARY.

A Balm for Consumption, Great Bodily Debility, Old and young Coughs, Flatulency, Indigestion and Bilious Disorders, Constipation and Diarrhea, Scorbatic and Scrofulous Affections and Female Complaints.

The Egyptian Balm of Life being an invaluable Family Medicine, should not be neglected in the Spring and Fall by any member of a family, as a Grand Auxiliary to the efforts of nature, in throwing off superfluous humors, generated in the winter and summer months; thus preventing as well as otherwise curing the above distressing maladies, and giving a healthy tone and proper action to all the grand operations of the system.

This Medicine has long sustained an unrivaled character for excellence in the private practice of many eminent practitioners in Europe, yet remaining at the same time undivulged in the possession of the individual of whom it has been purchased.

For a more particular description of the above medicine we would refer to the envelope accompanying each bottle.

Many valuable certificates might be produced of the benefit received therefrom. Hundreds in the State of Maine, as well as in other States, can testify to its superior efficacy, but the proprietor is willing for the public to judge for themselves by trial. A few names however, are referred to in the envelope accompanying each bottle.

Foster's Celebrated Ointment.
For the cure of Sprains, Bruises, Cramp, Rheumatism, Contracted Muscles, Joint Throat, Stiff Neck, Pain in the Breast, Back or Sore Throat, Diarrhea, the Piles, &c.

The general testimony concerning this Ointment from those who have proved its merits, is that it is too valuable a medicine to be neglected. And indeed we might fill a book of an hundred pages in giving incidents of its happy effects on the suffering.

N. B. The above Medicines are prepared only by W. A. Greenough, Portsmouth, N. H., and sold wholesale and retail by him.

Also, sold wholesale and retail by G. W. LADD, Bangor; also sold by Eld. C. Rigby & J. Knowlton, Newburg; Winthrop Frost, Lincoln; S. Lang, Palmyra; H. G. O. Washburn & Co. ## Dr. D. Jayne's FAMILY MEDICINES.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

THIS invaluable medicine is daily effecting some of the most astonishing and wonderful cures that have ever been known. All who have used it for Asthma, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Whooping Cough, Croup or Hoarseness, Consumption, Chronic Pleurisy, Hoarseness, Pain and Soreness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, and every other disease of the LUNGS and BREAST, can and do attest to its usefulness. BRONCHITIS, a disease which is annually sweeping thousands upon thousands to a premature grave, under the mistaken name of CONSUMPTION, is always cured by it. The usual symptoms of this disease, Bronchitis, are Cough, Soreness of the Lungs or Throat, Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Hectic Fever, a Spitting up of Phlegm or Matter, and sometimes Blood. It is an inflammation of the fine skin which lines the inside of the whole of the wind tubes or air vessels, which run through every part of the Lungs. The Expectorant immediately suppresses the Cough, Pain, Inflammation, Fever and Difficulty of Breathing, and produces a free and easy expectoration, and a cure is soon effected.

It always cures ASTHMA. Two or three large doses will cure the CROUP, or HIVES of children, in from 15 minutes to an hour's time. It immediately subdues the violence of WHOOPING COUGH, and effects a speedy cure. Hundreds who have been given up by their physicians as incurable with CONSUMPTION, have been restored to perfect health by it.

If this Expectorant be given in the commencement of PLEURISY, INFLAMMATION OF THE LUNGS, or in acute RHEUMATISM, it does sufficiently large, so as to cause a little nausea for some time, going to be and covering up, it will produce perspiration, and subdue these affections at once.

PRICE $1.00.

Tonic Vermifuge.

WORMS IN CHILDREN. Of all diseases to which children are exposed, none are so fatal to them as Worms. Unfortunately, children are seldom free from them, and as they imitate the symptoms of almost every other complaint, they often produce alarming effects without being suspected. They are not only a cause of disease themselves, but by their irritation aggravate all other diseases, wandering from one part of the body to another, winding themselves up into large balls, and obstructing the bowels, and frequently the throat, causing convulsions, and too often death. The desired remedy will be found in Dr. JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE, which will soon destroy the worms, and invigorate the powers of digestion so as to prevent a return of them. PRICE 50 cents.

JAYNE'S CARMINATIVE BALM.

This is one of the most efficient, pleasant and safe compositions ever offered to the public, for the cure of the various disorders of the Stomach and Bowels, and the only article worthy of the SUMMER COMFORT, for curing CHOLERA INFANTUM or SUMMER COMPLAINT; and in the above and following diseases, it really acts like a charm, viz: Dysentery, Diarrhea or Looseness, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, Choleric Gripping Pain, Sour Stomach, Sick and Nervous Headache, Heartburn, Water-brash or Sickness of the Stomach, Vomiting, Spitting up of food after eating; and also where it passes through the bowels unchanged; Want of Appetite, Restlessness and Inability to Sleep, Wind in the Stomach and Bowels, Hysterics, Gravel, Nervous Tremors and Twitchings, Sea Sickness, Flatulency, Melencholy and Lowness of Spirits, Fretting and Crying of Infants, and for all Unsettled Affections and Nervous Diseases.

PRICE 50 cents.

Hair Tonic.

NO EXCUSE FOR A BALD HEAD. Since the important discovery of Dr. JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC, every one may, if they choose, preserve their hair from falling off, or if already bald, may, with certainty, have their hair restored by a faithful and persevering application of this valuable HAIR TONIC.

Please to read without prejudice the following communication, which, in addition to hundreds of others equally respectable, should remove the doubts of every reasonable person of the uniform and singular efficacy of JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.

MILTON, Feb. 15, 1840.

Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir: I cannot say my hair is restored, but I can say that it appears to be in as rapid a process of restoration as could reasonably be expected. I had not finished the first bottle, before a decided change was manifested over the bald part of the head, to which it was applied. A new growth of fine glossy hair, much like that of an infant, appeared, and has continued to increase, and I have had it cut two or three times. I have recently commenced upon the third bottle, but have been a good deal irregular in the use of the Tonic from the first, and from this I apprehend the effect is at present less than it otherwise would have been.

I began the use of the Tonic with little or no faith that it would ever be successful on my head, though I felt entire confidence in your statements of what it had done for others; and I was as much surprised as delighted when I saw the effect. You recollect the appearance of my hair when in your office. I assure you the hair has been nearly, if not quite, an inch long at the times I have had it cut, on those parts which were nearly destitute of hair when you saw me. It was, however, very fine, though thick. I am flushed with success, and I have no doubt in the diligent use of your Tonic, which, amidst all the hair humbugs which have been advertised in the papers, I am constrained to believe is what it claims to be, and that it will make the hair grow, and no mistake, at least on some heads.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From Graham's Magazine, for September.

UGLY LUCETTE.

BY MRS. A. M. F. ANNAN.

No one hath seen such scare-crows: I'll not march through Coventry with them—that's flat. Henry IV.

CHAPTER I.

Scarcely a turnout of any distinction, in New York, but was to be seen in Broadway one evening, which closed a beautiful spring day; and amid the glitter and dash, very much out of place, appeared a tawdry, dusty, country vehicle, with scarlet bombazette curtains, and a top projecting like the top of a Dutch porch. It was drawn by two fat horses, of different sizes and colors, which, instead of champing and caprioling, in the excitement of competition, as animals of more ambition would have done, seemed conscious of their false position, and moved along with their heads down, and at a pace so slow that even their sturdy driver appeared ashamed of their performance. He was a respectable-looking farmer, dressed in a coat of substantial blue cloth, with gilt buttons; in pantaloons of the same material, which, from the absence of straps, were drawn up high enough to reveal a pair of snow white, flaxen stockings, and a hat of which not a hair of the nap seemed yet to have been disturbed, though its block must have been good five years old. At length he drove up before a house, of unexceptionable style and finish, within the windows of which stood two pretty little girls.

"Ciel!" exclaimed the elder, throwing up her hands—a miniature dandizette, some twelve or thirteen years old; here, mamma, is a market-wagon stopping before our door!"

"It can't be a market-wagon, Victorie," said the other, "for there is nothing inside but people. What a funny looking concern!—with red curtains, and a big gray horse and a little brown one!—and there's a woman getting out, and such a queer looking little girl! see, Victorie! her flock comes down to her heels, and up to her throat, and what big leather boots she has on, and what a monstrous green silk reticule is swinging from her arm!"

"Hush, Clara—come from the window, Victorie," said their mother, approaching through the folding door; "in all probability it is your sister."

the country in her infancy, to insure her better health and a longer life. She was placed in the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Horton—a worthy couple who had no children of their own—and, while her father lived, had always received several visits in a year from him, with at least one or two from her mother. But Mr. De Ford had been dead three years, and his widow had found so many engagements since, that for eighteen months she had not seen the little exile, whose education she now designed to commence, and whose appearance now struck her with double dismay, when it was contrasted with that of her sisters.

The next morning Mrs. De Ford entered the sleeping room of her children at an earlier hour than usual. Lucette was on her knees by her little cot, and the other two were tittering at the toilette. Their mother had sense of propriety enough to check them, but when Clara whispered to her what they had overheard of the child's devotion, she joined in their laugh. It was "Oh, dear Lord, if I am ugly, pray make me good!"

Triennial Festival of the Bangor Mechanics' Association.

The fifth triennial festival of the Bangor Mechanic Association will be observed on Wednesday the 30th inst. by religious exercises, a public address, and a public dinner, at their Hall and to which, as has long been customary, with this association, the women will be admitted.

Former festivals have given so much satisfaction and the arrangements for the approaching one are so flattering it is supposed there will be a general attendance of the members with their wives and female friends.

The exercises at the Union Street Church will commence at half past eleven o'clock and will be as follows:

Voluntary.
Prayer.
Original Ode.
Address.
Original Hymn.
Prayer.
Anthem.
Benediction.

The members of the association with their friends will then proceed to the Mechanics Hall where ample drawing rooms have been fitted up, and where a dinner will be provided.

Some of the Southern papers are coming out with long and carefully written articles in favor of the annexation of Texas to the United States. These writers insist upon it that this is an act of a great era, and that now is the time for this great act, which they compare to the annexation of Louisiana and Florida, to be consummated. It is a little singular that while the venerable John Quincy Adams and other eminent statesmen have been putting forth their power to prevent the annexation of Texas, and while many Southern politicians are urging it with their might, and southern papers publish long and carefully written articles in favor of it, a down east writer has discovered that the whole matter is moonshine, and that Texas cannot be admitted at any rate! This is, in the language of the day, a great country!

There is now quite a dispute between the authorities of Canada and New Brunswick as to the ownership of the territory on the Canadian side of the Madawaska. The New Brunswick authorities supposed it belonged to that province and have heretofore given permits for cutting lumber upon it, but recently Sir William Colebrook has received a communication from the Governor General, claiming the ownership of the soil in behalf of the Canadian Government. This will prevent any permits for cutting timber being given, and may, perhaps have a favorable influence upon the lumber trade.

The long storm has cleared off and the weather is bright and pleasant. We propose now to exchange umbrellas with the gentleman who, a few evenings since while a small company of gentlemen were examining the mail papers in our office accidentally took our umbrella instead of his own. Ours may be known by our name being engraved upon the pearl ornament inserted in the end of the staff.

We insert in our columns today the prospectus of a committee of the late State Convention of Mechanics for the publication in this city of a monthly periodical devoted to those matters deemed of importance to the mechanics of the State. We think such a publication is needed in Maine, and that it will exert a salutary influence, particularly in quickening mechanics to vigorous efforts in self and mutual cultivation. We wish the effort abundant success.

We learn that the uncommon freshet in the Penobscot has enabled Mr. Cushing the enterprising proprietor of the Frankfort Steam Mills, to run his logs from Oldtown to his Mills. Mr. C. never does a thing at the halves that can be well done, and he has run his logs clean instead of allowing them to remain lodged upon the banks of the river or in the side booms on the way, as is frequently done to the loss of the owner and always to the annoyance of the owners of land and booms.

The growing corn in Maine is pushing ahead with astonishing rapidity and there will probably be a good crop.

It must often, we doubt not, be a matter of astonishment to many persons how the proprietors of Graham's Magazine and the Lady's Book can afford so great an outlay for the elegant engravings and the well written articles that adorn the pages of these periodicals. Only an immense circulation could sustain the outlay. And the circulation of each of these magazines is said to be fifty thousand. It is pleasant to think that one hundred thousand of these attractive pamphlets are circulated every month.

We learn that James Rich, an interesting boy about eleven years of age was drowned at North Bucksport on Friday forenoon, 25th inst.

Horse Thieves.

We learn from the Eastport Sentinel, that the rascals who absconded with Mr. Rider's horse, wagon, &c. about a week since, have been arrested in that town. Their names are Geo. and Henry Inman, of Orono, and they had sold the property at Calais, for $32 when they were arrested.

Col. R. M. Johnson is soon to visit New England and preparations are being made in various places to give him an enthusiastic welcome. All right.

Whig Convention of the Western District of Hancock, held at Bluehill, August 16, 1843.

The convention met at Bluehill, at the Town House, at 11 o'clock, A. M. and was called to order by Col. Moses Buck, of Bucksport, and on his motion, Col. David Walker, of Brooksville, was chosen President of the convention, and Addison Dodge, of Bluehill, Secretary.

On motion of Col. Buck, a committee was chosen to prepare Resolutions, and to report in the afternoon. John Stevens, of Bluehill, John Swazy, and Moses Buck, of Bucksport, and Jonathan Readman, of Brooksville, were chosen for this committee.

Adjourned to half past 1 o'clock.

Afternoon.

At half past 1 o'clock, the convention re-assembled.

On motion of Mr. Joseph Hinckley, that a committee of three be appointed by the chair, to report to this convention a candidate for the office of Senator to the next Legislature. Mr. J. Hinckley, of Bluehill, Col. M. Buck, of Bucksport, and Mr. Jonathan B. Readman, of Brooksville, were appointed for this committee.

The committee reported Mr. Sylvester Clapp, of Sedgwick, who was unanimously accepted by the convention.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, and a unanimous vote was given for Andrew Chute, of Orono.

The convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, and Augustus B. Perry, of Sullivan, received a majority of votes and was declared the duly elected candidate.

Mr. Stevens, chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, submitted the following:—Resolved, That the state of Commercial relations existing between this country and that of Great Britain, are such and have been for a long time and still continue to operate very injuriously upon the great interest and industry of the State of Maine, and are such as call imperiously at the hands of the General Government for relief; and whereas, the evils to our industry, trade, and commerce, resulting from these relations have been increasing upon us from the time of President Jackson's Proclamations, opening the West India ports, so called, up to the present day, so that it has come to this, that the British Colonial vessels are now in the enjoyment of a large if not the largest share of our legitimate coasting trade. And whereas, the interests of Maine, in relation to this subject, have been and are still neglected, it becomes the imperative duty of good citizens of this Senatorial and Congressional district, to use their influence and exercise their elective franchise in the election of such men to our State and national Legislature, as will devote their efforts to the promotion of the best interests of the people in connection with this and all other legitimate subjects of legislation, rather than obtaining office or electing officers.

Resolved, That we look with disgust upon the Legislative spirit which has prevailed, and that we recommend that the people send such men as know their business, and will do their business, and when done, will return to their constituents, being able to tell them what has been done.

Resolved, That it is the duty of every man to exercise his voice in the choice of Rulers; as our government is that of the people, they are responsible for that government, and cannot excuse themselves from that responsibility by neglecting the ballot-box, and leaving the affairs of the Nation and State to the rule of designing and dishonest men.

Resolved, That we approve of the nomination of Sylvester Clapp, for Senator, Andrew Chute, for County Treasurer, Augustus B. Perry, for County Commissioner, and they shall receive our united and hearty support for their respective offices.

Resolved, That we cordially respond to the nomination of Edward Robinson, for Governor, that we will use all fair and honorable means to secure him to that office.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this convention be signed by the President and Secretary, and published in the Bangor Courier.

DAVID WALKER, President.

ANDREW DODGE, Secretary.

The Fugitives.

Dr. Peabody and Mrs. Belden, who ran off with each other from Cleveland, have been seen at Fort Wayne, Indiana. They are followed by another party—the atmosphere about Cleveland must be contagious. The New York Pathfinder says:—Another elopement came off last Thursday.

The lady was young and beautiful, and had married a middle aged widower about two months. The husband was absent on business when the fickle jade took it into her head to scud. Before she left with her gay young Lothario, she took occasion to gratify a passion which is said to belong incidentally to the sex. That was to see her husband's credit somewhat extensively with several dry goods merchants, in the purchase of silks, satins, and fine linens.

A blacksmith brought up his son, to whom he was very severe, to his trade. The urchin was a most audacious dog. One day the old gentleman was attempting to harden a cold chisel which he had made of foreign steel, but he could not succeed. "Horsewhip it father," exclaimed the young one; "if that will not harden it, I don't know what will."

Why, says an exchange, is a man with corns like a vegetable? Because he's a to-martyr.

Well Done.

The Wings of Memphis, Tenn. and the county of Shelby also, are a noble set of fellows. They have been up early and worked late in the good cause. They have openly declared in themselves the fast friends of protection to American Industry, and its great champion, HENRY CLAY, and a glorious triumph has crowned their labors. They have cast in the county, three hundred and fifty more votes than were given for Harrison, in 1840, and have given a majority a third larger even than then. In 1841, the Whig majority was 53. It is now 325!—[Atlas.]

The Chinese Blind Children

These three interesting children, brought to this country by Mrs. Gutzlaff, the Missionary to China, have all been placed in the Institution in which they are to be educated. The eldest Elizabeth, and the youngest, Jessie, are in the Ohio Institution for the Blind, at Columbus, and the other, Fanny, in the Institution in Philadelphia.

We learn that the two in Ohio, arrived at Columbus about two weeks since, and are very cheerful and delighted with their new home. The children are intelligent even beyond their years, and evince a remarkable shrewdness and tact in noticing things around them and in conversation. Their manners and disposition are kind and affectionate, and show the great pains bestowed upon them while under the charge of Mrs. G. They can speak the English language and can also read the scripture in raised letters as used by the blind.

Their condition in China, like most of the numerous and unfortunate blind in that vast empire, was one of great destitution and exposure; one was carried on the back of its parent and put down in the street to sing its little beggar song, and when seen by the Christian missionary, its little limbs were frightfully swollen and lacerated by the brutal treatment of its natural father. The child, then only four years old, was purchased by the missionary, for thirteen dollars, and the little creature remarked to her benefactor that she ought to receive the dollars for the trouble she should be to her.

Another was left by its equally inhuman mother to be sold if opportunity offered, or left to perish in the streets; she was purchased for seven dollars. When the two children reached Columbus, they were asked what kind of climate they preferred; one replied, "neither cold or hot, but an equal mixture of both." They have been accustomed to a climate uniformly mild.

[U. S. Gazette.]

Be not Harsh.

Speak kindly, Sir, if you would win
My heart to duty now;
To make me loathe, detest my sin,
Stern must not be your brow:
A pleasant look—kind words will bring
A sinner from his wandering.

While you denounce, the stubborn heart
Resolves to persevere;
'Tis kindness only makes to start
The penitential tear—
And leads the erring prodigal
To list to soft Persuasion's call.

Then come with kindness—tho' I've erred,
To duty I'll return;
But if you speak a bitter word,
My anger fierce will burn—
And sooner than obey your voice,
A vicious path shall be my choice.

Father Mathew a Miracle worker.

Many persons will willingly admit that the moral revolution which Father Mathew has wrought in Ireland is, from its character and magnitude, more entitled to the appellation of a miracle than many other things which have been dubbed with the title. Until yesterday, however, we never heard that the wonder-working "apostle of temperance" was gifted with really miraculous powers. Whilst the administration of the pledge was going on in the grounds of St. Anthony's Chapel, it was confidently rumored that the respected Father had in the morning restored to a child, about fourteen years of age, the use of its limbs, of which it had been deprived for several months. The mother of the boy (so the story went) brought it in her arms to Father Mathew, who, after having inquired into the nature of its ailments, made upon it the sign of the cross, and repeated a few words, whereupon its limbs suddenly acquired their long lost vigour and the boy walked home! This story might have been looked upon as the clumsy invention of some superstitious ardent admirer of the Father, anxious for his well earned renown, and, as such, it might have been smiled at had it obtained credence only amongst the poor and uneducated; but it was actually repeated as indubitably true by persons in the middle class of life and one individual, who ought not easily to be deceived, and much less lend himself to deceit, declared that he himself was a witness of the performance of the miracle!—[London Times.]

Laziness.

A lady, in her letters from Madras, says that in India "every creature seems eaten up with laziness; even my horse pretends he is too fine to switch off his own flies with his own long tail, but turns round his head to order the horse-keeper to wipe them off for him." The people of India, and even the horses, must be the essence of gentility, since they so heartily dislike work. We have some of the same breed in this country, whom we could see transported to India without regret. Laziness is bad enough in the aged, but in the young it is intolerable. A lazy young man or woman will be sure to scratch a poor old head, if they do not die from ennui in their youth. Clipper.

A New Invention.

Major Noah says that a French paper speaking of a novel invention interesting to printers, called mi-type, by means of which the expenses of printing, paper and binding would, according to the patentee, be diminished by half. The mi-type may be thus shown. Take a flat rule and place it on a line of print, so as to cover the lower half of the letters, and the line may be read with ease. The reason is, says the inventor, that we never look at the lower part of printed letters, but always the upper part. This, however, is not the case if we cover the upper half. The patentee, therefore, proposes to have a type composed of the upper half of the letter.

M. Gutzlaff, the missionary, states that the art of constructing cast-iron buildings, supposed to be a recent English discovery, has been known to the Chinese for centuries.

A Frontier Association (about to be established in Monmouth county, N. J., for which purpose, as we learn by the Monmouth Inquirer, a very valuable farm, of about 670 acres, in the township of Middletown, some eleven or twelve miles from Freehold, lately belonging to J. H. Holmes Van Mater, has been purchased.

N. P. Willis has a work in press in London to be called "Dashes at Life with a Free Penail."

BY THE MAILS.

The Boston Mail of Thursday says, that as the steamboat train was coming in that morning on the Providence Railroad, the axle of the forward or ladies car broke while passing Roxbury, and the engine broke away from the train. One of the cars was thrown off the track, and one lady considerably injured.

Latest accounts from Tobacco state that great mortality existed among the shipping. The entire crew of the brig Creole, excepting the captain and cook, had died in that port. The barque Smyrna, ready for sea, was detained for want of men.

The Portland Advertiser says the report that a Tyler paper is to be started in Portland is a mistake. It laughs a little about this spasmodic effort a year since to start a Tyler paper there, and refers laughingly to John's prospectuses.

The Farmer's store in Sandisfield was burnt to the ground on Saturday night last, together with all its goods, books and accounts. Loss about $4000—no insurance. The property was owned by a company of farmers.

Gerrit Smith, Esq., of Peterboro', N. Y., has forwarded one hundred dollars to Daniel O'Connell to aid the repeal cause in a peaceable manner.

We learn, with the highest pleasure from the Kennebec Journal that Freeman H. Morse of Bath a Mechanic and a whole souled Whig has been nominated by the Whig Convention as a candidate for Congress.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE MECHANICS' RECORD.

By a vote of the late STATE CONVENTION OF MECHANICS, a Committee was authorized to issue a Prospectus for the publication, in the city of Bangor, of a monthly periodical devoted to the interest of the Mechanics of the State, and to be the organ of communication between the different Associations already formed, and the means of increasing their numbers and extending their influence.

Agreeably to their instructions, the Committee now propose to their brethren, the Mechanics of Maine, the publication of a monthly periodical earnestly devoted to their interests—to all that concerns their social relations, their scientific attainments, and their progress in self-cultivation; a publication heartily engaged in disseminating a correct public sentiment regarding useful labor—in enlarging the boundaries of science, aiding in the improvement of the arts and in spreading useful information upon all subjects connected with education and the arts, as well as an organ of communication between the Mechanic Associations in the State.

It is confidently expected that the matter for each number will be furnished by the earnest thinkers in each of the Associations in the State and by men who are deeply interested in the onward progress of humanity, by means of a better and a wider spread intelligence among the people, and a broader extension of physical science and the mechanic arts. The Record will be issued in a pamphlet form of convenient size for binding, upon good paper and a clear type, each number to contain as many pages as the amount of the subscription at the time of its publication will warrant.

TERMS. The Record will be furnished to each subscriber for one dollar a year in advance, and no subscriptions will be received without the pay.

Delegates to the State Convention, the officers of the several Mechanic Associations and mechanics generally are requested to aid in procuring subscribers and remitting the money, that the experiment so honorable to them, if successful, and so useful to the community may not fail for the want of their co-operation and influence. It is expected, also, that each Association will take immediate measures to occupy a portion of the Record in those matters deemed of the greatest interest in advancing the cause which the mechanics in this State, for themselves, have so unanimously undertaken.

* * The first number will be put to press as soon as notice is received of a sufficient subscription to sustain the publication.

good house and two good barns, a good well of

FARM FOR SALE.
THE subscriber offers for sale, that tract of land known as the Todd farm in the town of Chester. It is pleasantly situated on the river about four miles above Lincoln village and consists of about 33 acres mostly excellent tillage land, including eight or ten acres of intervals. There is a small house upon it somewhat out of repair and a moderate sized barn. To an experienced and practical Farmer, who would improve it himself, this Farm would be highly valuable, as it will yield with suitable cultivation a large crop of Hay and Grain, which in that situation must always command a market at good prices. It will be sold on reasonable terms on application to me at Bangor.

his attention to the construction and operation of Water Wheels, has finally succeeded in the in-the United States.

These Wheels are simple in their construction, cheap and durable, are easily put in operation, and are not liable like most other wheels to get out of order, they are not obstructed by back water, when the head is not diminished thereby; and the same power and speed is obtained, with about one half the quantity of water usually applied to wheels
now in general use.
A great number of these Wheels are now in operation and give in all cases entire satisfaction; and for further information respecting them the following gentlemen are referred to, all of whom have some of said wheels in operation: Jacob Drum-
